wildest club in town

PHOENIX ZOO | ARIZONA CENTER FOR NATURE CONSERVATION

It's shaped like a bone,
but don't be misled,
find it where secrets
and treasures are spread.

My head is large,
but my mouth is small,
find me where
the strange things call.

---

HINT LIST

Find 2

I twist and curve,
but not with a tool,
I'm tricky and wild,
not playing it cool.

You'll find me buzzing,
without a care,
look near the place where you rest or prepare.

I twist and turn,
but I'm not a key,
I'll tighten or loosen
with agility.

Sweet and warm,
with apples inside,
baked in a crust,
a treat to reside.

I swing through the air,
but not with a ball,
I've got wings, not a bat,
though I might fly and call.

Not a hot dog,
but one that's cold
from my head down
to my tippy toes.

Not quite a cat,
but close I seem,
find me where
the fish do gleam.
